

Cornelia Volino Secretary General Worlds Chef Association joins Renard International

Cornelia Volino, Secretary General of World Association of Chefs Societies (Worldchefs) has joined Renard International Hospitality Search Consultants as SR Culinary Consultant.

Born in Toronto and inspired by her father, an Austrian Chef, Cornelia gained culinary experience at highly respected restaurants, major hotels and Toronto's largest entertainment complex.

Offered a teaching opportunity, Cornelia went to Queens University, taught culinary arts and served on the Ontario Trade Advisory Board. She also studied at Ryerson University and University of Toronto for eCommerce Management.

Cornelia is an established culinary guru. She was the Editor of Rolling Pin Magazine and continues to write articles for various media publications. She gained insight into television production as Associate Producer of the Comedy Kitchen television series and a judge on The Pressure Cooker.

Cornelia is an active volunteer in local, national and international trade associations. She served as National President and Chairman of the Board for the Canadian Culinary Federation, including 4 years as President. Cornelia is Continental Director of the Americas for Worldchefs and is currently Secretary General worldwide. Cornelia has developed a vast industry network throughout the world.

As a past gold medal with distinction and team grand gold winner at the World Culinary Olympics she is an approved judge for both Worldchefs and the Canadian Culinary Federation. Cornelia served as a judge for the Canadian Culinary Salon, HACE in Cairo, Emirates Salon Culinaire in Dubai, Bocuse d'Or in Lyon, World Culinary Olympics in Germany, World Culinary Grand Prix in Glasgow and many more.

Travelling around the globe as a judge, guest speaker and international guest, Cornelia continues to offer support to her network of dedicated industry professionals and international colleagues.

Cornelia takes pride in sharing her insights and knowledge at International culinary showcases and competitions and was a judge at the HORECA JORDAN on October 10 to 12 2017, and the HOSPITALITY QATAR 2017 Salon Culinaire on November 7 to 9.

Renard International is proud to have Cornelia as part of our team..... and our family.

Contact: cornelia@renardinternational.com