

Chief Engineer – Seychelles

A 5 star luxury resort in the Seychelles requires an individual who is currently an Assistant Chief Engineer or who wishes to move forward in their career as a first time Chief Engineer. Only French speaking candidates will be considered.

The successful candidate must have experience working in a resort/hotel on an island and will be responsible for managing maintenance operations of the entire resort facilities, including guest rooms, building structure, all mechanical, electrical, H.V.A.C. systems, power plant, reverse osmosis water plant, sewage treatment plant and related equipment in accordance with guest service, preventative maintenance and energy conservation standards and programs. He/she will ensure the upkeep of guest and service areas to maintain them in proper working order and appearance.

Salary: $2,800 US net per month plus accommodation

Chief Engineer - Western Africa

Our client is a leading 5* International Hotel Group. For their 5* Hotel in Western Africa we are currently looking for a hands on Chief Engineer, who has African experience or hardship experience.

This individual must have 2-3 years experience in a similar position, with at least two years experience as a Chief Engineer in a 5* luxury hotel or resort, international experience is mandatory and preferred, along with experience in a hardship destination. Single status only.

Package: US$48,000 plus full expat benefits